

Competition rules

Draw organised by LISER in the presence of a bailiff

1. The Luxembourg Institute of Socio-Economic Research, hereinafter referred to as "LISER" or "Centre", established at Maison des Sciences Humaines 11, Porte des Sciences, L-4366 Esch-sur-Alzette/Belval, represented by its statutory bodies currently in office, is organising a competition relating to the "Study on living together in the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg" (hereinafter referred to as the "Survey").
2. Participation in the competition begins on 16 October 2024 and ends on 24 November 2024.
3. The competition is open to individuals (hereinafter referred to as "participants") who have consented to take part in the survey and chosen to enter the lottery. Questionnaires completed after the closing date will not be entered into the competition.
4. Staff members (salaried and self-employed) of the Centre organising the competition, as well as family members of the above-mentioned persons, may not take part in this competition. Only people who have consented to take part in the competition will be included in the draw.
5. 20 Amazon vouchers (on the German or French site, depending on the participant's preference) worth EUR 200 are up for grabs.
6. A draw will be held 2 weeks after the end of the survey by a bailiff. 20 participants will be drawn at random and declared winners. The winners of the competition will be notified and will receive their prize by email.
7. Participation in the competition implies acceptance of these rules. The full text of the rules is filed with the TAPPELLA & NILLES law firm of bailiffs at 14-16, rue du Canal; L-4050 Esch/Alzette and can be consulted on the www.tapella-nilles.lu website. They are also published on the survey website (<https://vivre-ensemble.liser.lu>).
8. Participation in the competition is free. You can only enter as described in these rules.
9. No complaints will be accepted regarding the organisation of this competition, except in the event of serious or intentional misconduct on the part of the person in charge of the Centre. Similarly, the designation of the winners may not be contested under any circumstances, for any reason whatsoever, except in the case of serious or intentional misconduct.

10. Vouchers won may not be exchanged by the LISER for other products or services, nor for their cash equivalent. The awarding of these vouchers may not be contested under any circumstances, for any reason whatsoever, except in the event of serious or intentional misconduct on the part of the Centre manager.
11. LISER undertakes to comply with current data protection regulations.
LISER collects identification data on the basis of participants' consent for the purposes of registering and managing lottery participants.
LISER undertakes to use personal data solely for the purposes for which it was collected and to keep it confidential. No personal data is passed on to third party organisations.
LISER undertakes to facilitate the exercise of the rights of the persons concerned by the means communicated to the participant for this purpose.
All data collected for the purposes of this competition will be destroyed by LISER at the close of the lottery.
12. Any liability on the part of the Centre and its bodies, employees and agents in connection with this competition, for any legal reason whatsoever, is limited to cases of wilful misconduct and gross negligence.
13. The competition organisers reserve the right to modify or suspend the competition in the event of a major event making it impossible to hold the competition. In the event that certain clauses are or become invalid, the other participation conditions will apply.
14. The competition and any question relating to the interpretation of its rules is subject to Luxembourg law and falls within the jurisdiction of the Luxembourg courts.
